WHAT is the CEAV

The Career Education Association of Victoria was formed in 1975 to provide service and support to careers advisors in schools, assisting young people regarding their futures. The CEAV also provides support to VET, MIPs and VCAL coordinators.

WHY belong to the CEAV

CEAV membership benefits include:

- Four professional journals per year
- Comprehensive professional development program
- Advice, consultancy and advocacy on careers and vocational education and training
- Liaison with and support for regional careers groups
- Conferences for new members and all members
- Extensive network contacts e.g. employer organisations, tertiary institutions and government bodies
- Discounts on purchases of publications, PD and conferences

LIAISON with other groups

The CEAV liaises with the following:

- DE&T including VCAA
- DEST (Commonwealth)
- Job Watch (employment rights legal service)
- VECCI
